There'll Be A Hot Time For The Old Men

(While The Young Men Are Away)

Words by
GRANT CLARKE

Writer of

"There's A Little Bit of Bad In Every Good Little Girl"

Music by
GEO. W. MEYER

Writer of "Me And My Gal"

Allegro moderato

Till ready.

All the girls are griev-ing 'Cause the boys are leav-ing Gone to face the foe,
While the young men stayed here They had ev-'ry maid here Things have changed some-how

But the men of fif-ty, they feel might-y nift-y, They don't have to go-
And the real old fel-low Nev-er was as mel-low As he is right now.

Young men they are sail-ing ev-'ry day Who will love the girls while they're a-way?
It's not ver-y hard to fig-ure them All the old men think they're young a-gain.

CHORUS

There'll be a hot time — for the old men — While the young men are a — way — When the young men go to France, — Oh, won't the old men have a won-der-ful chance, Toraise the dick - ens — with all the chick - ens — They'll have ev - 'ry thing their way.

p-f

Now that the young — men have all dis - ap - peared — Ev - 'ry young girl — grabs a man with a beard,
All the old men — read the pap - ers and laughed — When all the young — men were caught in the draft, There'll be a hot time — for the old men — While the young men are a way. — There'll be a way. —

SONGS the SOLDIERS and SAILORS SING

Get these four smashing song hits for your piano, your talking-machine, or your player-piano—and get them right away. Keep up with the boys who sing their way into action.

It's a Long Way to Berlin But we'll get there

"We'll sing 'Yankee Doodle' under the Linden with some real live Yankee pep!" That's the real "do or die" spirit of this up-to-the-minute war-song hit. Better than "Tipperary" because it goes straight to the point. The music gets there, too—gets to your heart and your feet. By Arthur Fields and Leon Flatau.

"It's a Long Way to Berlin"

I Don't Want To Get Well

Here's a song that will make you laugh—although it's about a wounded soldier. He was harder hit by his nurse's smile than by the German bullet—and in a far more vulnerable spot. A sympathetic melody that won't let your feet keep still. By Johnson, Pease, and Jentes.

"I Don't Want to Get Well"

ON SALE NOW

At all music and department stores, or at any Woolworth, Kresge, Lerner, McCrory, Kraft, Grant, or Metropolitan store.

OUR boys on the fields of France, our sailors on the big, gray sea-fighters, and the boys in our training-camps are singing them! The whole country is singing them and dancing to their inspiring melodies! Being sung to tremendous applause in thousands of theatres throughout the land!

Try over the choruses and you will know why. Don't wait until you hear everybody singing them—get copies of all four of these songs now and be the first to sing them.

These songs are on sale at practically every music store in the United States and Canada. Look for their displays of the songs and reproductions of this advertisement in their windows.

If you have difficulty in locating a dealer, however, you may order direct from us, 15c each, any 7 for $1.

Special Note: The very next time you go to a cabaret, dance-hall, or other place where there is music, be sure to request the leader to play these four songs that the soldiers and sailors sing and love.

But don't miss them—don't miss hearing them, singing them, or dancing to their inspiring, martial melodies.

Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here

Here's a song you think you know. But did you ever hear the verses or did you ever see the music? It's all here—and it's all the sort of stuff that puts pep into everybody. One of the greatest marching refrains ever written—and just as good as a foot-stomp or one-step. By D. A. Esrom, Theodore Morse, and Arthur Sullivan.

"Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here"

Homeward Bound

Your skin will be awfully thick if this song doesn't get deep down underneath. You can see our brave boys coming home, you can see Victory, you can see the joy of duty nobly done and the world at peace again.

The melody—well, it's just the right one for this matchless song. By Howard Johnson, Coleman Goetz, and George W. Meyer.
